Shock came 3:30 Monday afternoon without warning while weather was pleasant and the sky cloudless. Minor shocks continue at intervals.

Order has been restored, but panic-stricken negroes are afraid to return to their homes and are living outside of Kingston.

Colonial bank burned, but vaults containing books and cash, safe.

British colonial office preparing to send relief from Trinidad and other British West Indian colonies.

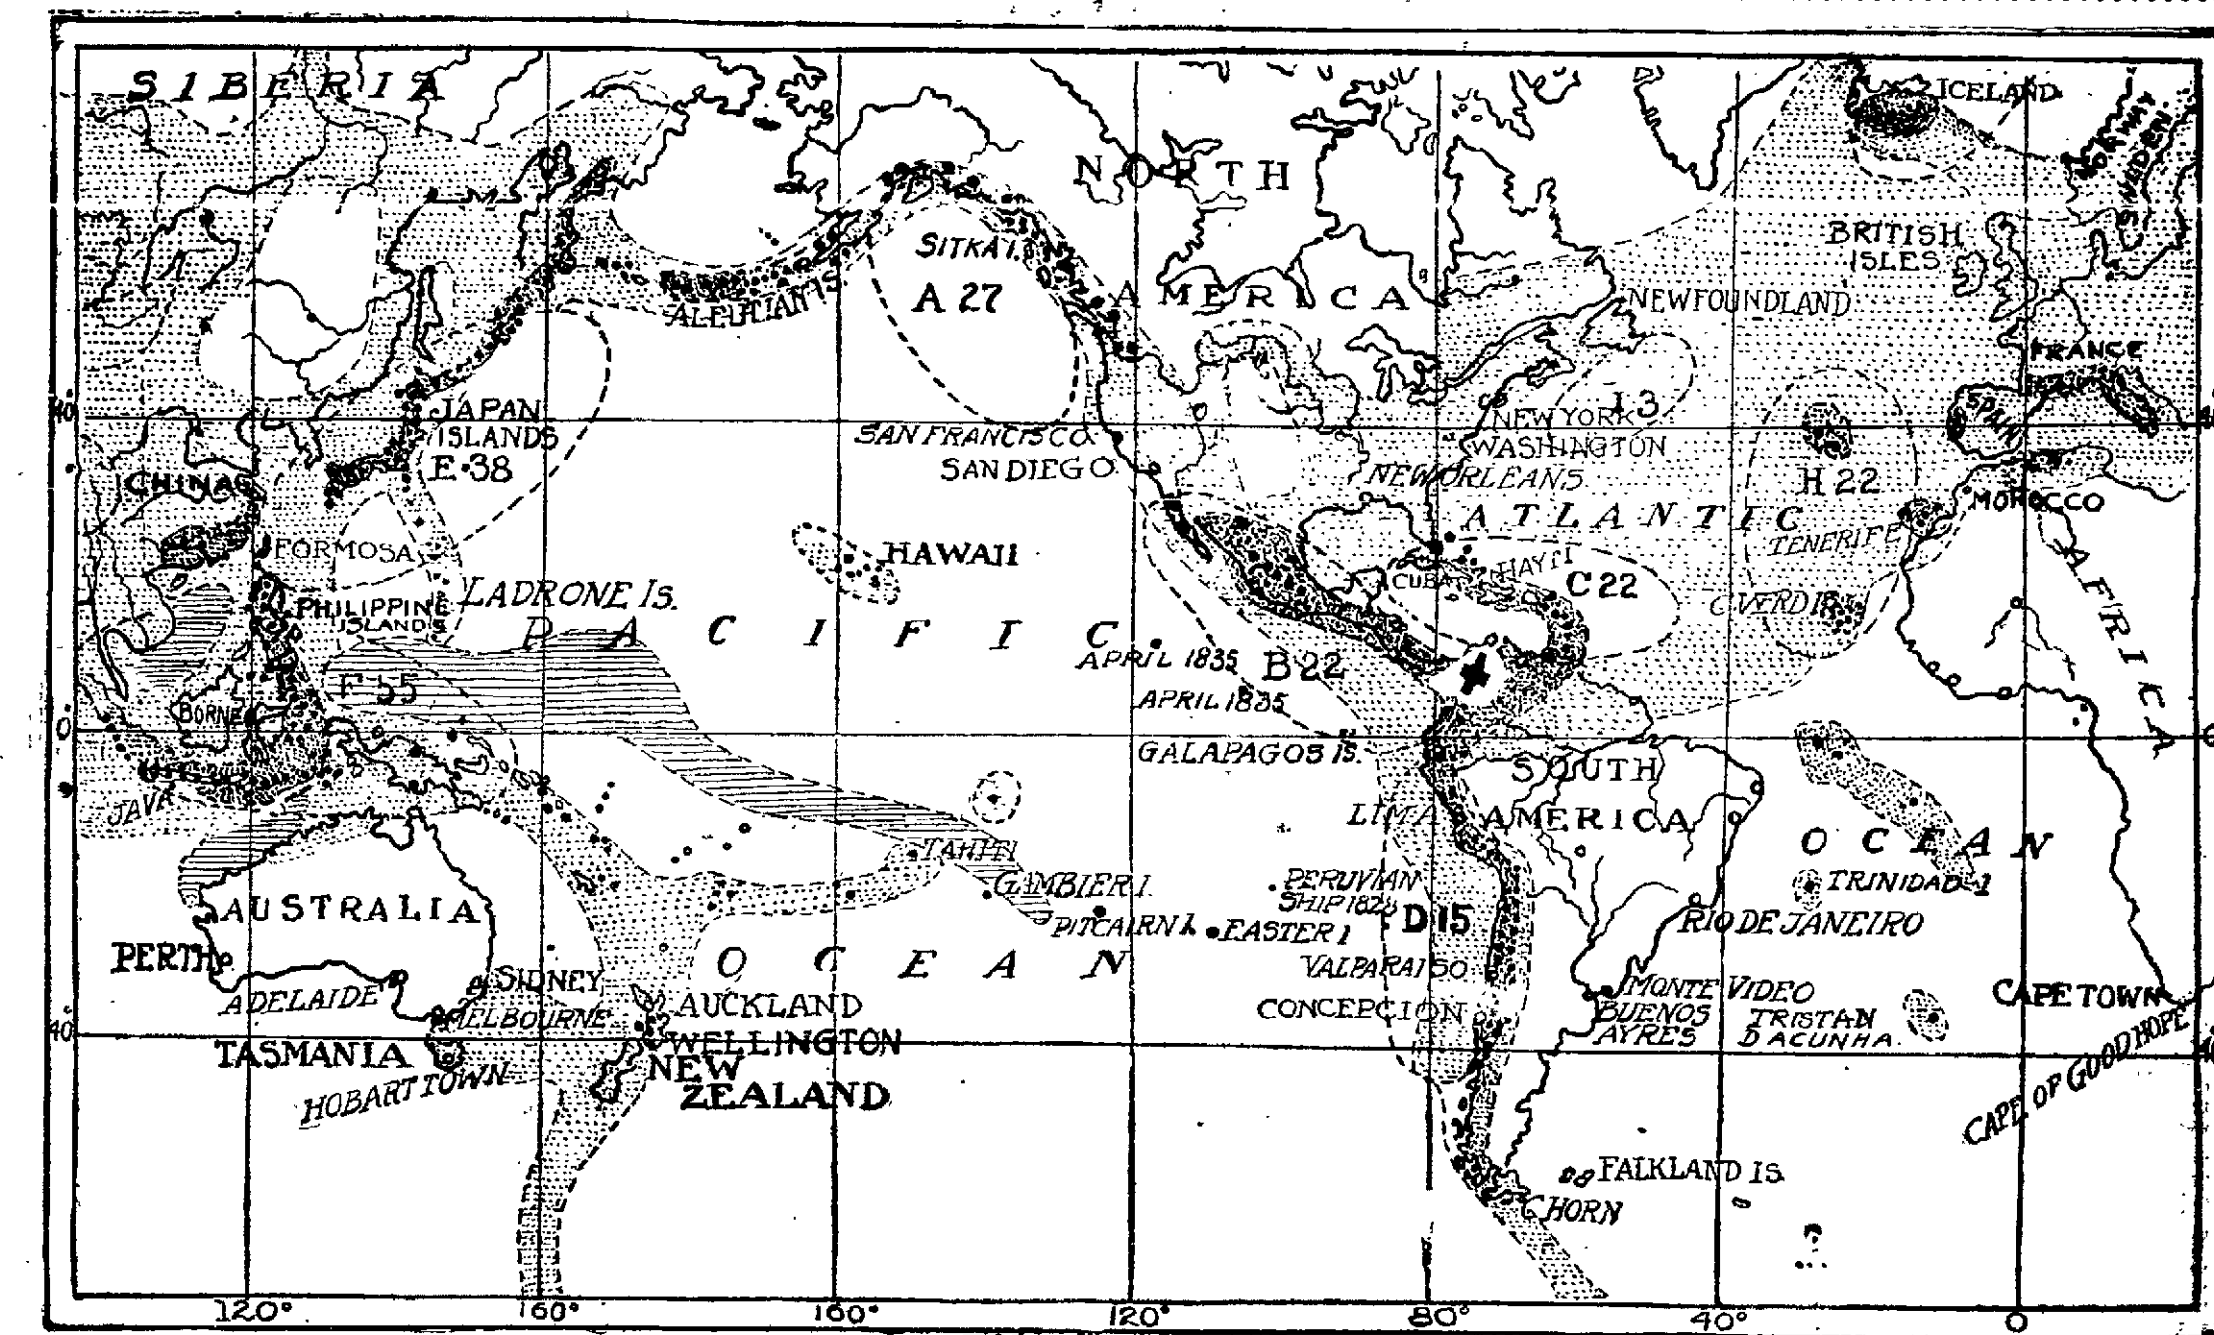

LOSS OF LIFE ESTIMATED AT OVER 300.

Kingston, Jan. 16.—The city is practically in ruin as a result of the earthquake Monday afternoon. The most reliable estimates fix the fatalities at upwards of 300. The list of injured mount into the thousands. The property losses are upwards of $15,000,000. The fatalities confined almost wholly to natives. Tourists suffer the loss of practically all their personal effects, in consequence of the destruction of most of the hotels. Communication partially restored.

London, Jan. 16.—The following dispatch received by the colonial office while semi-official is regarded as authentic. It reads as follows:

"Holland Bay (Forty miles east of Kingston, Jamaica), Jan. 15.—Awful earthquake; Kingston ruined 3:30 Monday afternoon; city afterward swept by fire; hundreds killed. No Englishmen, Americans or Canadians missing, except Sir James Ferguson. Houses rocked and crashed into streets. All buildings and dwellings ruined. Governor and Sir Alfred Jones directing affairs. Inadequate discipline; city now quiet; some looting, but nothing serious.

"Military hospital burned. Thirty soldiers roasted alive under ruins.
"Military doing best work saving people.
"Of natives, very many roasted under ruins, as Kingston was center of eruption.
"Many heroic deeds by whites and blacks reported.
"Shock came without warning while weather was perfect.
"Abject terror possessed everyone.
"Ferguson instantly killed. Several prominent citizens are among those killed.
"This message was sent through Watson Scotman,

Holland Bay, Jamaica, Jan. 16.—Latest reports from Kingston overland are that the deaths from the earthquake and fire will exceed 300. This estimate is, if anything, too low and will be increased when a thorough search has been made in the fire district and in collapsed buildings in the native quarters. Thirty negro soldiers perished in the military hospital alone. Sir James Ferguson was killed by a falling wall. He is the only white man of prominence thus far reported among the dead.

Order has been restored under strong military control, but few people have returned to their homes, even where slight damage was done. Monday night there was looting in the wrecked buildings but patrols of soldiers soon put a stop to it. Several offenders were caught and locked up in the barracks. Shipping in the harbor is reported to have escaped injury with the exception of some little craft which could not be pulled away from the burning docks in time. The principal burned district is a triangle formed by the water front and King and Queen streets, which is the most congested section. In other quarters the houses are more detached. This prevented greater destruction by fire.

There was only a slight breeze. The quake came at 3:30 Monday afternoon, absolutely without warning. The weather was warm and cloudless. Streets were practically deserted, the people being indoors sleeping of the last of their siesta or lounging upon piazzas. The first shock was like a quivering blow as if a giant fist had smashed against the underside of the earth's crust. Objects leaped into the air and people were hurled to the ground. There was an instant of suspense and then came shocks, some with a lateral motion which brought to the ground loosened masonry, timbers, and whole houses. A number of people in the streets who were keeping close to the side of the buildings for the sake of the shade were killed by falling cornices.

From stores and houses people ran out reeling as if they were drunk. Then by a common instinct they fled toward the open country in the foothills back of the town. Nineteenth of the refugees were colored people who were in the wildest possible panic. The whites were nearly all in the office buildings and stores along the harbor and King street, or in the detached hotels and villas back of the city.

Of the big hotels only the Myrtle Bank, a three-story built about three sides of a palm court and located on Harbor street, was destroyed. This hotel is owned by the government and leased by the Elder-Dempster Steamship company, and was filled with English tourists.

Within fifteen minutes after the first shock fires were burning in a dozen places. No concerted effort was made by the firemen until whole blocks were in flames. All that could then be done was to prevent the fire from crossing the wide thoroughfares. Within a very short time troops were marched in from the barracks to assist in the work of rescue. Sir Alexander Swettenham, governor of the island, took charge. He was actively assisted by Sir Alfred Jones, a visiting Englishman, by officials of the United Fruit company, probably steamship and hotel men.

The cable building was among those destroyed and efforts to open wire communications with this place failed. A number of persons, including Manager Budge, of the Halifax-Bermuda cable company, then crossed the island with the news.

JAMAICA'S GOVERNOR CABLES THE NEWS.

London, Jan. 16.—Sir Alexander Swettenham, governor of Jamaica, cables the colonial office as follows: "Earthquake did considerable damage to houses and other buildings in Kingston. It was followed by fire, which continues although now decreasing. The camp hospital was destroyed, killing thirty soldiers. Major Headman was seriously injured. The town hospital is crowded with 300 injured. The Myrtle Bank, Hotel and Cable office is destroyed. The number of casualties are not ascertained. Slighter shocks continue."

MEDICAL SUPPLIES RUNNING SHORT

MANY UNDER STRONG RELIGIOUS EXCITEMENT EXPECT END OF THE WORLD.

Women Volunteer to Aid in the Re- lief Work—Doctors Working Without Sleep.

Holland Bay, Jan. 16.—Nearly all the white survivors have been taken care of in the undamaged hotels back of town and in private residences.

A larger part of the negro quarter is intact but most of the negroes are still camping in the open. Many are under strong religious excitement expecting the end of the world. Colored preachers collect crowds and exhort them to repentance. Many have given away their possessions and arrayed themselves in white sheets to await the final trump.

Three hundred wounded, mostly colored, have been collected in the city hospital, which is intact. All the doctors in the city have worked without sleep since the shock. They are short of medical supplies. Many women are acting as volunteers.

TOTTERING BUILDINGS MAKE STREETS UNSAFE.

London, Jan. 16.—The streets of Kingston are today wholly unsafe owing to the tottering condition of the buildings, according to a cablegram received today by the manager of the West Indian and Panama Telegraph company. The message was sent from Bull Bay about eight miles from Kingston.

It states that the shocks are still continuing, that people are fleeing from the city and that everybody is camping in the hills.

The walls of the Holland Bay house are in a broken and crumbling condition and while the building stands, it is a tottering wreck. The message says there is not a house or building in safe condition between the Bull Bay station and Kingston.

WEATHER BUREAU'S REPORT.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Prof. Moore, chief of the weather bureau, issues the following regarding the Jamaican earthquake: "The distance from Kingston to Washington is only about 1,420 miles, while San Francisco is 2,437 and Valparaiso is 4,909 miles. The amplitude of the motion at Washington in the present case is distinctly less than each of the other great earthquakes and we therefore conclude that the violence of the motion at Kingston was also less.

WASHINGTON AFTER OFFICIAL NEWS.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The state department has cabled W. H. Orrett, acting United States consul at the Jamaican capital as well as the consular agents at other points on the island, but on account of the interruption of the land lines in Jamaica it is expected that there will be considerable delay in obtaining answers.

The navy department takes it for granted that Admiral Bob Evans, in command of the fleet off Guantanamo has already sent a gunboat or cruiser to the scene, if he has not already proceeded there himself. He has been instructed by cable and wireless to offer all possible assistance.

The bureau of equipment has also been cabled messages of inquiry to all the wireless stations on the southern Atlantic coast.

The war department also has cabled Governor Magoon in Cuba for information. The first news communicated to the government department regarding the earthquake was the bulletin of the Scripps-McIntire Press association yesterday afternoon. Considerable anxiety was manifested, on account of the large number of Americans known to be in Kingston, and throughout the night and early morning efforts were made to establish official communication with the stricken city, but without success.

PROPHESIED QUAKE LAST DECEMBER

Startling Fulfillment of York, Pa., Seer's Remarkable Prediction Made Before Christmas.

York, Pa., Jan. 16.—The Kingston earthquake is a startling fulfillment of a prophecy made last December by Lee Spangler of this city, the man who predicted the eruption of Mount Pelee, the assassination of President McKinley, the Spanish-American war and the defeat of Russia by Japan. Mr. Spangler announced shortly before Christmas that there would be a disastrous earthquake soon after the beginning of the new year. He also predicted that the preliminary earthquakes will serve as warnings of the end of the world, which he says will come to pass at the close of 1908.

QUESTION OF CHILD LABOR

And a Resolution May be Passed For- bidding Employment of Boys Under 16.

Indianapolis, Jan. 16.—With the national officers of the United Mine Workers of America unduly agitated over the decrease in the membership of the union and the failure of the miners through the locals to pay assessments to build up the million dollar defense fund the rank and file of the union, the plain fellows with the lamp and pick are more interested in the salvation of their boys.

Until there is a change in the industrial condition it is necessary for mere lads in the mining districts to enter the mines, performing work that might be done by men. It will require some drastic legislation, the members of the union say, to prevent the coal barons from putting boys, hardly out of their childhood age, into the depths of the earth to produce wealth for them.

The present delegates, according to John Armitage, a representative from Steubenville, O., have been strong enough to survive all the evils of child labor.

Delegate Armitage will put before the resolution committee a suggestion that the union come out emphatically for a measure which will place the minimum age at which a youth may enter the mines at sixteen. This will apply to boys in both the anthracite and bituminous fields.

"I started to work in the mines when I was eleven," said Mr. Armitage, "and I have been there since, and I'm thirty-four years old. There was not much happiness in boyhood for me. There was not much play and not much school."

INSANITIES OF THE SANE

Queer Delusions Described by a Hypnotic Expert.

FOOD ADULTERATION A CAUSE.

Dr. Quackenbos Blames Too Fast Life For Whole Trouble—Talks of Suggestion and Mental Ills It Can Cure—Yale Man's Predicament in Mailing a Letter—Sad Case of Woman Prepared to Receive a Proposal.

Dr. John D. Quackenbos, the eminent specialist on the treatment of nervous diseases, recently told the Entertainment club of New York at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel how easy it is for perfectly sane people to get insane at times and how wheels in the head may be removed by mental suggestion, says the New York Sun.

Delusions of the sane are a matter of nerves and twentieth century strenuousness, said the doctor. If you play bridge or poker too much, play the races, speed an automobile, dabble in Wall street, work or play too much by electric light, live in a flat, eat adulterated food or breathe bad air you are liable to imagine that microbes are playing tag on your coat sleeve or if you happen to keep bees in your cellar you may be afraid to go into that cellar for fear of eating a bee. These are merely mild pranks of the delusional bug, but if you have a bad case you may be scared to death of lemons.

"Among my patients," said the doctor, "have been persons who dared not cross the threshold of their homes and had not been out of their houses for months, who could not force themselves on a car or wash and dress themselves or shake hands or sleep under a bed-quilt. Some have diseases that no one ever had before. Wheels go around in their ears, they see birds and the fluttering of wings, footsteps follow them, strange things crawl through the key-hole, faces stand out on the wall, and flies whisper secrets to them. Many have a baseless fear of insanity, and one lady sought a position in an asylum so as to be on hand when the day of aberration should arrive. Lots of people come to me saying they are bewitched, an exceedingly common delusion today. A well known authoress believes she is under the hypnotic power of a doctor who comes into her room disguised as a cloud and flaps his aerial wings underneath her bodice."

Dr. Quackenbos told stories about a woman who could not sit in a theater for wanting to fire a pistol at the person in front of her, of a woman who saw a coarse word scribbled on a fence and couldn't help saying it herself and of a man who developed a mania for going to law and in one instance pursued an executor with persistent malignity during five years of controversy only to be defeated in court twenty times in succession.

A common delusion of the sane, said Dr. Quackenbos, is a morbid horror of dust and disorder (mysophobia). One patient feared that if the cups and saucers were displaced they could never be put back and spent the greater part of a night keeping them on the shelves. The sight of a goblet upside down threw him into a frenzy. Cases like these are promptly cured by suggestion, said the doctor. "What has been wrongly called the insanity of indecision manifests itself in delusions of doubt. The subject will go back several times to see if the gas has been turned off properly or the stock certificates returned to the safe. A neurotic Yale graduate of my acquaintance I have known to stand on the front steps undecided as to whether to mail a letter in the lamp post box on Fifth avenue or the next corner in Madison avenue until the mental conflict precipitated an attack of hysterical weeping."

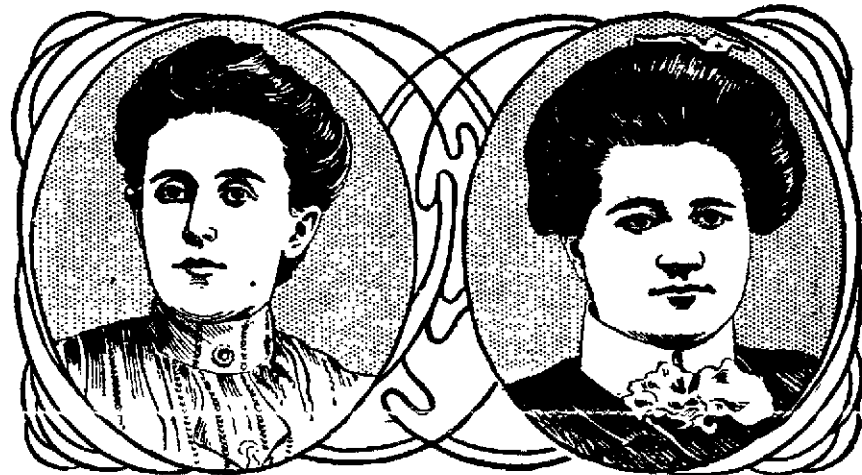

"There is a humorous as well as pathetic side to some of these abnormal thought forms. A physician recently under my care imagined that his clothing was covered with microbes. He was constantly brushing them off. He soiled fifty napkins a day in desperate efforts to brush them off the tableware. His wife was unable to keep a servant in her employ, and his practice went by the board."

"A gentleman brought his wife to me a few years ago suffering from a postgrippal delusion that her skin was covered with worms. The wrinkles in her dress were worms. Her finger tips were worn sore from looking for worms in her clothing. At the third treatment I made bold to declare that I had captured the last worm, when my sleeping patient retorted, 'There is one left, doctor.' I clutched the last imaginary offender and said in a firm voice: 'I have got it. You will be troubled no more.' She was completely cured."

"Even hard headed business men become the victims of ludicrous obsessions. A young man applied to me last autumn for the cure of an irresistible impulse to throw himself into the arms of every corpulent woman he saw and be hushed to sleep by her."

"I once prepared a young lady to receive a proposal. Her lover was due that very night from Boston, and I consented to do the best I could for her. She must not be too eager and so convey the impression that she was an easy conquest. She must not be too frigid and repel the advances of affection. I worked one hour over that sleeping beauty impressing my views, and when I waked her I felt that she was well equipped to go through the trying ordeal. Do you know that man never came. He has not since materialized, and the poor girl is still waiting for an opportunity to give expression to my instructions."

WORKING WOMEN, WHAT THEY SHOULD KNOW

MRS. SADIE ABBOTT MRS. PREE MCKITTRICK

Women for the most part spend their lives at home, and it is these women who are willing and ambitious that their homes shall be kept neat and pretty, their children well dressed and tidy, who do their own cooking, sweeping, dusting and often washing, ironing, and sewing for the entire family, who call for our sympathy.

Truly the work of such a woman is "never done" and is it any wonder that she breaks down at the end of a few years, the back begins to ache, there is a displacement, inflammation or ulceration of the abdominal organs, a female weakness is brought on, and the struggle of that wife and mother to continue her duties is pitiful.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and aros, is the exact medicine a woman needs whose strength is overtaxed. It keeps the feminine organs in a strong and healthy condition. In preparing for childbirth and recuperating therefrom it is most efficient. It carries a woman safely through the change of life and in making her strong and well assists her to be a good wife and mother.

Mrs. Sadie Abbott, of Jeannette, Pa., writes: "I suffered severely with pain every month and also a pain in my left side. My doctor prescribed for me but did me no good; a friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I wrote you in regard to my condition. I followed your advice and am a perfectly well woman. The pains have all disappeared and I cannot recommend your medicine too highly."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "For six years I suffered from female weakness. I was so irregular that I would go from three weeks to six months, so I thought I would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. "Now I am once more well and can do my work without a pain. Any one who wishes, can write to me and I will answer all letters gladly."

Women should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the greatest number of actual cures of female ills. Every suffering woman in the United States is asked to accept the following invitation. It is free, will bring you health and may save your life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham, probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

DANDELION a safe and sure specific for rheumatism

Rheumatism for the most part attacks the sinews and muscles of the body. Therefore the joints, the muscle casings and heart valves suffer most. Like gout this disease is caused by an excess of uric acid or blood poison in the system. Rheumatic pains sometimes change their location; wander from one part of the body to another, and visit various joints in succession. The nature of this painful disease is still a matter of opinion, but certain remedies have been discovered that produce immediate and lasting relief, and many times a permanent cure. Probably the most important discovery made in this connection is the famous prescription from which Dr. Edward's Compound Dandelion Tablets are prepared. Thousands of people have used this wonderful remedy for rheumatism and are now well and happy. It will pay you to get a box today.

Tonsiline Prevents Diphtheria

Sore Throat—nature's danger signal. At the appearance of Sore Throat the first thought should be its instant cure. Don't regard it lightly—don't think it may be gone tomorrow. An hour's delay may bring fatal results.

What good doctor in his practice now advises delay or thinks lightly of any Sore Throat, especially in children?

Modern medication wisely endeavors to quickly control and cure the simpler forms of disease—it's so much easier and so much safer than waiting for the graver diseases to follow.

It is right here and in this way that TONSILINE has its greatest value.

Tonsiline will positively cure the Sore Throat and thereby prevent the dread disease—Diphtheria.

Tonsiline is the one remedy, sold largely throughout the United States, exclusively for the cure of Sore Throats. Its field is limited, but it does its whole duty every time. We know of no case where it has failed during its years of use in thousands of homes.

Buy a bottle today and have it ready for instant use.

Tonsiline is the catch in time. 25c and 50c at all druggists.

BRIBERY PLOT

Alleged to Have Been Unearthed by the New York Police.

New York, Jan. 16.—The district attorney's office claims it has unearthed a plot by which 11 aldermen were to have been approached to sell their votes in connection with the election of a recorder of general sessions for $500 each.

Alderman William S. Clifford and David Mann, foreman of a local stone yard, have been arrested on charges of bribery. According to the district attorney's office, $6,000 in marked bills was found on Mann, who is accused of being the go-between. It is alleged that Clifford accepted a bribe of $5,000 in return for which he was to deliver the votes of himself and 10 other aldermen for ex-Judge Rufus B. Cowing for recorder. The district attorney's office declares that Judge Cowing knew nothing of the attempt that would be made to induce aldermen to support him.

It is alleged that Earl Harding, a newspaper reporter, charged that the votes of certain aldermen could be bought, and that the matter before the district attorney. Harding was given the marked money to carry the deal through.

THOSE FIRE HYDRANTS.

Mr. John P. Lamb, of the former Board of Service, being seen by the Advocate today, reiterated his statement that the present water works contract originally provided for 172 two-nozzle hydrants and 50 threenozzle hydrants, 225 in all, and he refers to the contract to verify his statement. He explains that the journal entry of the former Board quoted by the American-Tribune was only intended to provide for the payment of a sub-contract that had been made for 192 hydrants. Mr. Lamb claims that the error in nowise was intended to change the original contract and that it did not in fact make any change in the same.

As the present Board has made no claim of providing for more than 192
hydrants in the changes that are alleged to have been made in the contract, and therefore HAS NOT PRO-VIDED FOR MORE HYDRANTS
than the former Board provided for,
there is nothing in controversy so far as the Advocate's own statements are concerned.

If it were not for the fact that Correspondent Walter Wellman is far away waiting for the season to open to continue his journey in search of the north pole the people of Colum-

of making a search for the poles belonging to the municipal lighting plant which disappeared some months ago. None could describe so well the work of preparing to make a search than Walter Wellman.

Last spring a city boarder, who went to Lee trout fishing, declared that if he could only get some grasshoppers he would be willing to pay liberally for them, as he believed they would prove great bait along the trout streams. He pointed out the fact that trout could always obtain plenty of worms and it when the season opened, but that they had to wait until August for grasshoppers. He would be willing to pay 2 cents each for some, and he knew scores of other fishermen who would give as much, he said.
This set Mr. Ludgate to thinking, and when grasshopper time came he hired all the boys in the neighborhood to catch the insects at the rate of a cent for fifty. He sent his own children out in the fields, and when the crop had been gathered he possessed about 75, 000 hoppers of all kinds and sizes. As fast as the insects were taken they were placed in a corner, which had been made air tight by pasting paper over the cracks. The crib was then filled with hay and banked with leaves to keep it warm within.
Thus far during the winter the grasshoppers have stood the cold, and Mr.
Ludgate sees no reason why he should lose more than 10 per cent by spring.
Having little else to do, he is now making boxes in which to ship the insects when the fishermen want them.
If he can get 2 cents each for the hoppers he will make about $1,200 for his pans.

TOGO'S GIFT TO PARIS.

No Weapons, but Nymphs and Seedlings
For Petit Palais' Water Mirrors.
Admiral Togo in being altogether
Japanese has been wholly French in a little international incident which has evoked a degree of appreciation that could not be more typically French unless it were Japanese, says a Paris cable dispatch to the New York Sun.
He was asked for a souvenir for the Marine museum. He responded by sending by a French horticulturist in his employ not a weapon, but an aquatic ornament for the art museum.
Admiral Togo is said to possess the most beautiful nymphs in Japan. He sent seedlings from his garden as a gift to Paris for the water mirrors of the interior court of the Petit palais, the elegance of which has charmed the Parisians.

Petrified Forest of Great Beauty.

H. H. Buckwalter of Denver, who recently returned from Arizona, reports that he discovered there a new and immense petrified forest which far surpasses those heretofore found, both in number of trees and beauty of petrification, says a Denver dispatch. He says that the trees in this forest are all solid agate most brilliantly colored, and one or two stumps taken to New York
could be cut and polished into table
tops and sold at fabulous prices. Mr.
Buckwalter brought away some large specimens of the rocks, one chunk weighing a couple of hundred pounds.

Awful Action of Alcohol.

Speaking the other night in London
before the Society For the Study of Inebriety, W. M. Eccles read extracts from school children's essays on the drink habit, says a special cablegram
from London to the New York Times.
One child wrote: "Alcohol is a mockery at last. It biffeth like a servant and stingeth like a hatter."

T. Vesuvius Roosevelt.

The ordinary hill which remains forever
still.
All covered o'er with specimens of botany.
Is hugely safe and sane, but its heights
seem rather plain.
And its silence breeds political monotonous.
I myself prefer a mount with a crater as he found.
Dropping firebrands like the thunderstorms of Pluvius;
There is something half satanic in conditions so volcanic.
Yet we're proud of our Political Vesu-vius.

With a curious, sulphurous,
Rumbling, grumbling roll of thunder,
Teddy's going to erupt—
Stand from under!

Where the grafter sleeps content suddenly the air is rent
With a blast like that which buried Herculeanum;
Railway lobbies cough and choke in a cloud of flame and smoke,
And the conscript fathers get it in the cranium.
Now Chicago beef is shook, now the poor
old spelling book Shouts: "Have mercy, sire! Your heat will crack the shell of me!"
Now the mountain heaves its shoulders
and upheaves a ton of boulders, While the sparks descend and roast the luckless Bellamy.

With a hectic, apoplectic,
Howling, growling roll of thunder
Teddy's going to blow up—
Stand from under!

Though terror sometimes scares a puff
from his lid, that's just a bluff.
For his calmer moments never mean security
And the prophets yell: "Look out! He's intending for to spout" There'll be trouble in the very near future!

No; we can't foresee that, but his
crater's getting hot,
And the coals will soon be dropping, as they must, again
Bringing up the tariff's tatters and the mossy old stand-patter—
There's no telling where Vesuvius will burst again.

With a bounding nation bounding,
Bumping, thumping roll of thunder
Teddy's going for to spout—
Stand from under!

WANT PRINCETON'S PRESIDENT FOR SENATOR

Woodrow Wilson.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 16.—The Democratic members of the legislature
were to have a joint caucus yesterday to select a candidate to be supported next Tuesday for the United States senatorship, but the caucus was postponed until next Monday. Leading Democrats are opposed to Col. E. A.
Stevens, the only avowed aspirant.
They favor President Woodrow Wilson of Princeton university but Dr.

WEDDINGS.

DICKEN-PIRIEST.
Mr. Homer Dickon, son of Asias Dickens, and Miss Gertie Priest, highly respected people residing four miles south of Newark, were married on Wednesday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. C.
Sparks, at the parsonage at 10 o'clock. The groom is a well known young plumber of Newark and he and his young bride will make their home at 276 Hudson avenue.

EVANS-MOORE.

One of the prettiest home weddings
of the season took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Katherline McClell, 61 Granville street,
when Miss Clara Moore and Mr.
John D. Evans were united in marriage. Promptly at 8 o'clock, the bridal party entered the parlor, led by Rev. Mr. Boyce of the First Presbyterian church. The rooms were beautifully decorated with ferns, palms and carnations. The happy couple were attended by Miss Katharine Stoller and Mr. Albert Jones.
The bride was very charmingly governed in gray silk over pink silk. After the ceremony and congratulations
the guests were served with a delicious luncheon. About 25 friends and relatives were present and the bride and groom were the recipients of many useful and handsome gifts.
Mr. and Mrs. Evans will be at home to their friends after February 1, at 215 Thirteenth street, this city.

DR. JACKSON'S
Digestive and Liver Powders Highly Recommended.
Wm. H. Kiehl, 1209 Grant street, with the Rich Billard Hall, Main street, Zanesville, Ohio, says:
"That I am convinced that Dr. Jackson's Digestive and Liver Powders were the means of saving my life as well as that of my wife. Mr. Kiehl had indigestion brought on by over exertion and not taking time to eat his meals properly, the food instead of dissolving lay in the stomach and caused him to feel dreadfully crowded, the heart and kidneys his blood becoming loaded with poison. Four hours of pain in the night finally landed him in the hospital. His condition was such an extent that he could not turn over in bed. Dr. Jackson's Blood Purifier and Nerve Tonic acted on his kidneys, toned his nerves and brought appetite together with the Digestive Powders, which dissolved his food, threw off the gas, removed the poison of the heart and kidneys, and converted his food into pure blood, nature doing the rest."
DR. JACKSON'S
DIGESTIVE AND LIVER POWDERS
are put up in powder form and contain every ingredient needed for the weak
digestive organs in proper proportions.
Some in pill form from their acidity, as soon as they reach the stomach and give instant relief.

DELAWARE, O., Jan. 16.—The senior class of Ohio Wesleyan University voted to extend an invitation to James A. Bryce the new ambassador to officiate if Mr. Bryce can not do so.

TWAIN AND THE TELEPHONE

Mark Hears the Telharmonium and Incidentally Tells a Story.
"The trouble about these beautiful,
novel things is that they interfere so with one's arrangements. Every time I see or hear a new wonder like this I have to postpone my death right off.
I couldn't possibly leave the world until I have heard this again and again."
Mark Twain said this as he lounged
on the keyboard dais in the telharmo-nium music room in upper Broadway,
New York, swinging his legs, the other afternoon, says the New York Times.
The instrument had just played the
"Lohengrin" wedding march for him.
"You see, I read about this in the Times," said he, "and I wanted to hear it. If a great princess marries, what is to hinder all the lamps along the streets on her wedding night playing this march together? Or, if a great man should die here—I, for example—they could all be tuned up for a dirge."
"Of course I know that it is intended to deliver music all over the town through the telephone, but that hardly appeals as much as it might to a man who for years, because of his addiction
to strong language, has tried to conceal his telephone number, just like a chauffeur running away after an accident."
"When I lived up in Hartford, I was the very first man in that part of New England at least to put in a telephone,
but it was constantly getting me into trouble because of the things I said carelessly. And the family were all so thoughtless! One day when I was in the garden, fifty feet from the house,
somebody on the long distance wire
who was publishing a story of mine
wanted to get the title.
"Well, the title was the first sentence, 'Tell him to go to hell.' Before my daughter got it through the wire and through him there was a perfect eruption of profanity in that region.
All New England seemed to be listening in, and each time my daughter repeated it she did so with rising emphasis. It was awful. I broke into a cold perspiration and, while the neighborhood rang with it, rushed in and implored her to desist. But she would have the last word, and it was 'hell'
sure enough every time."
"Soon after I moved to New York.
Perhaps that had something to do with my moving. When I got here and asked for a fireproof telephone, the company sent up a man to me. I opened up all my troubles to him, but he laughed and said it was all right in New York. There was a clause in their contract, he said, allowing every subscriber to talk in his native tongue, and of course they would not make an exception against me. That clause has been a godsend in my case."

BELLAMY AND MARIA

Names Given to White Zouche Kittens
by the President.
Samantha, a mature and motherly
cat, long a favorite pet of the White House, brought added joy to the hearts of the youngest Roosevelt children by bringing into the world the other day
a pair of kittens, says a Washington special to the New York World. The youngsters were greatly tickled by reason of this unexpected present. They put the kittens in a basket, took them upstairs to their father and said that as the new pets were born on Christmas day he must supply them with appropriate names.
The president at first demurred, but eventually yielded to the insistence of the children. With one of his inscrutable grins, which have often proved puzzling alike to his friends and enemies, he declared that the name of the male kitten should be "Bellamy" and the name of the female kitten should be "Maria."

Ellis Island, Not Plymouth Rock.

In an article in the January number of the North American Review by Dr.
Darlington, president of the board of health of New York city, is this interesting and highly significant anecdote:
"A New York schoolteacher recently tried to get from her class some intelligent answers to questions regarding important facts in United States history. Vainly she labored. At last in a moment of inspiration and desperation she asked, 'Where is Ellis island?' Instantly every hand in the room went up and the light of intelligence gleamed from every pair of eyes. The answer was as one voice.
"In speaking afterward of the incident the teacher said in a spirit of mock gravity:
"I am convinced that United States history will have to be revised. We have always looked with veneration upon Plymouth rock. Our future generations will know it only as a legend.
Their history begins with Ellis island."

Flags Proposed For All Postoffices.

Flags are to be provided for every postoffice in the United States under the terms of a bill recently introduced in the house by Representative Cocks of Long Island, who represents the president's district in congress, says
the New York Tribune's Washington correspondent. At present only the first and second class postoffices are entitled to flags from the government.
Mr. Cocks is of the opinion that the little fellows who handle the government mail in country stores or remote places are especially entitled to consideration and should be furnished with bunting by the United States. If the bill is enacted the postoffice department will have an additional appropriation for flags and every postmaster may decorate the building he occupies with the stars and stripes.
As the postoffice at Oyster Bay is rated
third class, the postmaster there,
under the present law, is not provided with a flag by the government.

ANNUAL REPORT OF POST OFFICE

The annual report of the Newark postoffice, which has just been issued,
shows a remarkable growth in every department when compared with the report of 1905.

The gross receipts of the Newark
office for 1905, from stamps stamped envelopes, newspaper wrappers, newspaper postage, third and fourth class cash matter and box rent, amounted to $44,948.35. The same in the report for 1906 shows total of $19,807.49,
which is an increase of $4,869.14, or 11
per cent.

The expenses for the year, including:
clerk hire, city delivery service, railway mail service, building rental and incidentals, amounted to $51,116.57, leaving a balance to be turned over to the assistant of the treasury department in Cincinnati, of $18,500.96,
which is clear profit for Uncle Sam
from the Newark office.
The delivery service mentioned above includes the salaries of the postmaster and his assistants, 10 clerks, 16 city carriers, 4 substitutes, 9 rural carriers, and 5 railway clerks.

The money order department reported 22,861 domestic money orders, amounting to $217,067.82, with fees of $1,501.91; 1030 international orders,
principally to Hungary, Italy, Greece,
Germany, Great Britain and Russia, amounting to $18,513.95. The fees for these amounted to $351.57. There were 12,014 domestic orders paid, amounting to $98,063.98, and 65 internationals, amounting to $3,226.48.

In 1905 there were 7,356 packages and letters registered here, and in 1906 there were 9,712, or an increase of 24 per cent.

Chronic Coughs

NEED VINOL

it stops the cough because it cures the cause
This is the season for coughs and colds, and for the benefit of Newark
people our local druggist, Frank D.
Hall, tells them the best means for a cure.
He says, "Take Vinol, our real cod liver preparation without oil. It does not upset the stomach like cough syrups, and it is much more effective. Vinol is not a palliative but a curative."

This is because Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form all of the healing, strength creating and medicinal elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers,
with all the useless, nauseating oil eliminated and tonic iron added. It tastes fine and cannot upset the weakest stomach, hence its wonderful power to cure.
We ask every person in Newark
who has a chronic cough or hard cold to try Vinol on our guarantee.

PLEASE LARGE AUDIENCES.

The Van Dyke and Eaton company at the Auditorium is one of the very best repertoire companies ever seen in Newark. They are giving splendid performances of good, clean plays to large audiences, and giving unqualified satisfaction. "The Men of Jimtown," a high class drama dealing with life in the far west will be presented tonight. The prices are very cheap considering the merits of the attraction.

STUNNING GOWNS.

The many beautiful gowns worn by Miss Ollie Eaton at the Auditorium are deserving of special complimentary mention.

THE VERDICT OF THE PEOPLE.

"The Clansman" Thomas Dixon Jr.'s intensely interesting play of the reconstruction period, will play at the Auditorium Thursday, January 24. Viewed as a stage production, "The Clansman" is one of the most powerful dramas ever put on the American stage. Such scenes as the parting of the lovers, Ben Cameron and Elsie Stoneman, in the third act, would alone be sufficient to carry any play to success. The power of the play as a play is proven by the enthusiasm with which it is received in the north as well as in the south. The tremendous business done by this play in every section of the country shows what is the verdict of the people.

One of the strongest scenes of "The County Fair" is in the fourth act, giving a realistic scene with four thoroughbred horses, including the well known "Cold Molasses" and the mechanical effects are perfect, making it one of the best rural plays on the stage. roariously funny and just as true to certain character characters as ever, and adds to the joys of life while he is on the stage. The story of "The County Fair" is well known and need not be given here, but it is sufficient to say that all of the excellent features of this drama are preserved with Mr. Burgess personally and his excellent company of players whose characters are drawn from everyday life. All the original mechanical effects which contributed to the success of "The County Fair" are carried in two car loads of scenery and horses direct from New York City. The race scene in this production is one of Mr. Burgess' many inventions in stage mechanism and it is this ability in mechanics that has made the spectacular production of "The County Fair" known throughout America.

OPERATION SUCCESSFUL

And Hopes Are Entertained for Recovery of Charles Thorpp, Although He may be Paralytic.

(Special to Advocate.)

Mr. Vernon, Jan. 16—Charles D. Thorpp of Croton, who was brought to a hospital here Tuesday, having had his back broken by a falling tree underwent an operation Tuesday forenoon. Dr. Frank Larimore of this city, performed the operation, which consisted of the removal of a part of the fractured back bone, and the patient has rested as comfortably as possible under the circumstances being able to sleep and eat, although the limbs, below the point of injury, are paralyzed and may be so for the remainder of the man's life even if he recovers.

The attending physicians state that until the reactionary period is passed they can say nothing as to Mr. Thorpp's recovery, but after that time, if no other complications set in, he can live.

Merrill is the former sheriff of Carroll county, Ga., who defended a prisoner from death in 1901 at the hands of a mob. EARTHQUAKE

The earthquake calamity have been exaggerated. The cablegram, sent from Holland Bay says the company's steamer Admiral Sampson, which sailed from here last Wednesday with a large number of passengers, arrived safely at Port Antonio on Monday.

The big Hotel Litchfield at Port Antonio, is safe, and no mention was made of any damage in that part of the island. The Sampson in command of Captain Henshaw, sailed from Longwharf at 10 a. m. last Wednesday. Vice President J. L. Jones said:

"We do not feel that there is occasion for great alarm. Jamaica has had earthquakes before and the people there rather expect them. Our steamships Admiral Sampson and Admiral Schley were due to sail this morning and I trust their passengers are out of danger. We have in port there now receiving cargoes the steamships Baker, Lillie and Belita."

"I resided in Kingston for several years, and visited there twice a year. There is a good water supply and an excellent fire department. The houses are low and built with the possibility of an earthquake in view. It is a little early for any considerable number of tourists to be there, as the greater number generally leave the United States in February and March."

Ferguson's Death Reported.
London, Jan. 16—It is announced officially that Sir James Ferguson, deputy chairman of the Royal Mail Steamship company, was killed in the Kingston earthquake.

Bank Not Yet Open.
London, Jan. 16—The Colonial bank has received a cablegram from the manager of its Kingston branch. It reads:

"Bank burned. Vault with all books and cash is safe. Were locked previous to fire. Not yet able to re-open."

Steamship Line Will Deliver Supplies
New York, Jan. 16—The Hamburg American Steamship line has just announced that it will receive and deliver at Kingston, Jamaica all supplies and provisions that may be donated for the relief of the earthquake sufferers.

The first steamers of this line to leave New York will be the Allegheny, which sails on Friday and the Prince Joachim, which sails Saturday.

THE EARLY REPORTS

Of the Kingston Disaster Were Meager and Were Probably Exaggerated.

New York, Jan. 16—Kingston, the picturesque capital of the island of Jamaica, has been devastated by a violent earthquake. From meager reports received through such channels as were open it has been learned that many of the most important buildings have been destroyed and that there has been serious loss of life.

So far as the reports indicate, the fatalities number less than 100, though the hospitals are filled with injured and the list of victims may be materially increased.

Kingston and the other points of interest of the island are at this season of the year thronged with tourists from both America and England, and the greatest apprehension is felt for the safety of many persons who had recently arrived at the Jamaican resort. The most distinguished of these were members of a party of English statesmen, agricultural experts and men of affairs who, under the leadership of Sir Alfred Jones, have arrived in Kingston within the past few days to attend an agricultural conference there.

The first shock was felt at about 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, and, as in the San Francisco and Valparaiso disasters, flames immediately sprang from the wreckage to carry on the work of destruction. Tuesday afternoon the fire was still burning, although it was believed to be under control.

The Myrtle Bank hotel, the principal hotel at Kingston, which probably sheltered the great bulk of visitors on the island, is reported destroyed. The great military hospital was burned and 40 soldiers are reported dead. Sir James Ferguson is said to have been instantly killed, but according to London reports no other Englishman, Canadian or American is believed to be missing.

Features of Wrecked City.

The city of Kingston has about 50,000 population, is laid out with regular and wide streets, and the better class of houses are neatly built, with wide verandahs and surrounded by handsome gardens. Streetcars run to the suburbs and two lines of railway connect the city with the northern and eastern parts of the island. Kingston has a botanical garden, library, museum, hospital and various other public buildings, and is the seat of an Anglican bishopric. The harbor of Kingston is considered to be one of the finest in the world, and is protected by forts. There is a naval arsenal at Port Royal. Nearly all the trade of the colony of Jamaica centers at Kingston, and the commercial houses of that city have extensive relations with southern Cuba and Central America as well as with the United States and Europe. The exports are mainly sugar, rum, coffee, dye woods and fruits. The streets of Kingston run at right angles to the sea.

The only volcanic formation in the island is that at the Lowlayton and Retreat estates, in the parish of Portland, a mile from the sea, in the county of Surrey, in which Kingston is situated. There is, however, no defined crater.

The island of Jamaica has experienced numerous earth shocks in the past. On Nov. 13 last a sharp tremor was felt. In 1692 a great earthquake destroyed Port Royal, of whose 3,000 houses only 200 were left standing. It was this catastrophe which led to the founding of Kingston. In August, 1803, Jamaica was swept by a hurricane, which almost totally destroyed Port Antonio and inflicted damages in various parts of the island amounting to about $10,000,000. Thousands of houses in Kingston were damaged, the wharves were battered and several coasting vessels were sunk. In 1782 a conflagration visited Kingston, and in 1880 a cyclone destroyed the city's wharves and shipping. The whole island was deluged by a hurricane in 1815 and 1,000 persons were drowned.

Another Account.

St. Thomas, Danish West Indies, Jan. 16—According to further, though still meager, details of the Kingston earthquake received here, it would appear that the first reports that the city had been destroyed were exaggerated. The fire which followed the shock was still burning Tuesday morning, although it had been confined to certain limits. The work of fighting the flames was still being pursued with energy. The hospitals are filled with injured persons, and everything possible is being done for their comfort. The principal hotel of Kingston and other important buildings have been destroyed. The flames apparently were confined to the docks and the warehouse district.

Fate of Americans.

Boston, Jan. 16—Dr. George H. Bridgeman of Elizabeth, N. J., who relinquished his post as American consul at Kingston, Jamaica, and arrived here on the steamer Admiral Dewey, stated that the consulate is at present in charge of W. H. Orrett, a native of this country, but a resident of Jamaica for many years. The office has two secretaries, both Jamaicans. Dr. Bridgeman said that there were perhaps 100 Americans residing in Kingston in addition to the tourists who visit the city at this time of the year. The tourist season so far has been a poor one, and there were on Jan. 8 less than 50 in the city.

To Investigate Earthquake.

Washington, Jan. 16—Secretary of the Navy Metcalf sent a cablegram to Admiral Evans, in command of the United States fleet off Guantanamo, Cuba, requesting him to investigate the extent of the earthquake disaster in Jamaica and report to the department. Admiral Evans is authorized, if necessary, to proceed to Kingston, which is about a 12-hour trip from Guantanamo.

IN POLICE COURT.

Wm. C. Willis, a metal polisher residing in West Newark near the foundry, was fined $10 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail for throwing stones at B. and O. Switchman Baxter, who was one of a crew which was engaged in switching cars near the Willis home.

A warrant was issued by Mayor McCleery for Mrs. Willis, charging her with pointing and firing firearms. Baxter claims that on three successive days last week, Mrs. Willis shot at him with a rifle. When the officers went to serve the warrant this morning Mrs. Willis had gone to Columbus, Clarence Randolph a helper at Halsey's factory, charges "Punk" George, a fellow employe, with stabbing him in the breast with a knife. No warrants were issued in the case.

WITHDRAWAL

Of Judge Carnes Sought by the Citizens of Jackson.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 16.—Commonwealth's Attorney J. P. Adams of the Breathitt judicial district presented to Governor Beckham a petition signed by a number of well-known citizens of Jackson, requesting him to call upon Special Judge William Carnes, the governor's appointee for the case of Jim Hargis and four others, to resign his commission at once and not again sit upon the bench at Jackson. The petition recites that for the sake of peace, quiet and good order Judge Carnes should withdraw from the cases. The petition to the governor is signed by the court's judge, county attorney and other officials and several merchants of Jackson, twenty-odd in all.

Fugitive Feudist Arrested.
Jackson, Ky., Jan. 16.—John Smith was arrested in Perry county by Harvey Riley on a warrant from Lee county. Smith was accompanied by an armed posse and was making his escape, but he offered no resistance. Judge James Hargis, Senator Alex Hargis and Ed Cahoon were on Smith's bond for $30,000 in two murder cases. When Smith confessed several days ago that he assisted in the assassination of Dr. Cox at the behest of Hargis and Callahan, they immediately withdrew from his bond and officers went in search of him.

PATRICK'S GREAT FIGHT

Battle For Life of Man Convicted of Murdering W. M. Rice.

IN DEATH CHAMBER FIVE YEARS

Lawyer Whose Sentence Has Been Commuted to Life Imprisonment Was Seven Times Sentenced to Die. Fortune Spent in Attempt to Save Him—Story of the Crime.

After nearly five years in the death house of Sing Sing and after having been seven times sentenced to death, about T. Patrick, who was convicted of the murder of William M. Rice, has been saved from the electric chair by Governor Higgins of New York and his sentence commuted to imprisonment for life.

Patrick's case has been one of the most famous in the criminal annals of the United States, says the New York Herald. The murder with which he was charged was committed on Sept. 23, 1900. He was arrested on Oct. 4 of the same year on the charge of forgery, but he was not indicted for murder until the following May. After a long trial he was found guilty on March 26, 1902, and was sentenced to die on April 7, 1902.

The attempt to save him has cost a fortune. Before his trial his brother-in-law, John T. Milliken of St. Louis, announced that he would spend $1,000,000 if necessary for the defense. Nobody outside of Mr. Milliken's confidence is in a position to know how much he has actually paid, but the sum is surely enormous, and most persons estimate it at more than $500,000. He has had many lawyers, including some of the most famous men at the bar.

Rice, the victim of the conspiracy between Patrick and Jones, was one of the unknown millionaires of New York. He made a great fortune in Texas and went to New York, where he lived in an unpretentious manner, seeing very few persons. Jones was his only servant. Patrick was practicing law in Texas when he had occasion to learn that Rice was worth from $7,000,000 to $10,000,000. Mrs. Rice had died, leaving a will bequeathing her estate to her relatives. Her executor asserted that under the "community law" of the state she had been entitled to a share in all her husband's possessions. He made a claim for about $2,500,000, and a bitter litigation resulted, in which Patrick was at one time retained against Rice.

It is believed by the district attorney that Patrick never saw Rice. The aged man was very angry about the suit, and he declared it had been a scheme to fleece him under a pretext of law. Though he knew Patrick by name, there was no evidence that they ever came together. Patrick settled in New York in 1891. He was then a widower with two small children, and for some time before his arrest he boarded in a house kept by Mrs. Addie Francis, to whom he was married in the Tombs.

He formed the acquaintance of Jones in 1899 and soon became intimate with him. Through Jones he found Rice had made a will leaving some minor bequests to friends and relatives, but giving most of his fortune to the William M. Rice Institute of Houston, Tex., which he had founded some years before. Patrick then suggested that this will was unjust, as it gave too small a proportion to relatives and too much to a charitable fund. He showed to the valet a few days before a rough draft of a will by the terms of which each one of the beneficiaries received two or three times as much as under the original document and naming himself as the residuary legatee. The plan was then perfected to get hold of the estate, with the understanding that the money should go in the first instance to Patrick, who agreed to give a liberal share to Jones.

The first cause for suspicion against Patrick was the presentation of a check for $25,000 at the banking house of Swenson & Son in New York. The cashier noticed that on the face of the check Patrick's Christian name was spelled "Albert," and he told the bearer the signature must conform to this spelling. He then rang up Rice's apartment on the telephone. Jones answered and began by saying his employer was too ill to talk, but, as the cashier insisted upon hearing from the man, the valet finally admitted he was dead. Swenson & Son refused to pay the check and notified the authorities.

Patrick, who had succeeded in getting one check cashed, took possession of the Rice apartment, gave orders that the body should be embalmed immediately and arranged to have it cremated. He asserted his right under the will which he had prepared, which made him executor and gave him the greater part of the estate. He was soon ousted from the place and arrested for forgery. He was at that time suspected of murder, but the proof was deemed insufficient.

Jones, who was sent to the Tombs with him, made an attempt at suicide by cutting his throat. He said afterward Patrick had given him the knife and induced him to use it, telling him he would surely go to the electric chair. Jones then made a confession. His first story was that Patrick had actually killed Rice, but when a few days he admitted it was a lie and had administered the drug and that Patrick, who had inspired the crime, had not been present.

As the price of his testimony which convicted Patrick, Jones received his freedom. He went to the south and he is alleged to have told persons that the story he told on the witness stand was untrue.

The little turned-back collar was of the cloth, applied with zigzag points of plain velvet outlined with cord, the vest being trimmed to match. The collar and vest was edged with narrow ball trimming of brown silk. The skirt was made with a slight sweep and was laid in stitched plaits to below the hips.

That They Can Do Nothing More for Your Stomach Than Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Are Doing Every Day.

COSTS NOTHING TO TRY.

According to the expert analysis of government authorities in the United States and Great Britain, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain the exact elements provided by nature for digesting food in the healthy stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have saved sufferers from stomach disorders millions of dollars by giving them, in one small 50 cent package, more relief than countless treatments by physicians would bring about at $3.00 per visit.

Perhaps you are afflicted with dyspepsia—or some kindred disease arising from a disordered digestion. It may be headaches, heartburn, nervous debility. They all have their beginning in a stomach which does not secrete the juices or grind the food which is taken into it.

If so, we urge you to send for a free trial package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. It will cost you nothing and surely will bring you no gain unless you find, after using it, that you are benefited and feel that you need a full-sized package.

There is absolutely no danger in using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Nothing is contained in them that has not been subjected to the closest scrutiny by the government officials.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest your food without demanding a careful diet. One grain of these Tablets has power to digest 3,000 grains of ordinary food. You can be sure therefore that no matter what your condition, these little tablets taken after each meal will shortly restore your stomach to its normal condition and render it capable of doing its work unassisted.

We withhold the names of hundreds who have written us voluntarily expressing their gratitude to this simple substitute for nature.

House Committee to Report the Littauer Shipping Bill.

VOTE WAS EIGHT TO SEVEN

Measure Agreed on is a Substitute For the Proposition Fathered by Congressman Grosvenor—Senator Spooner Attacks Senator Tillman's Position in the Brownsville Case.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Goaded by frequent interruptions from Mr. Tillman, the speech of Mr. Spooner in the senate on the resolution for the investigation of the affair at Brownsville was changed from a constitutional argument in defense of President Roosevelt's course in discharging a negro battalion of the army to a severe arraignment of the South Carolina senator. He quoted from Mr. Tillman's utterances defending lynching as a means of controlling negroes, and said that to encourage mob violence was a disgrace to civilization. Mr. Tillman was not permitted to reply, but at the conclusion of Mr. Spooner's attack declared that at an early date he would take occasion to defend himself against the insulting allusions made to him. The bitter feeling provoked by the controversy between the senators makes it impossible to say when a vote can be had on the resolution. Mr. Spooner took the position that Article 4 of the Articles of War gives the commander-in-chief of the army the power to dismiss the troops in the manner employed.

In executive session of the senate nominations of Cortelyou and Garfield were confirmed without encountering serious opposition. The nomination of George Von L. Meyer to be postmaster general was also confirmed, as was that of Herbert Knox Smith to be commissioner of corporations. None of these nominations except that of Mr. Smith will take effect until March 4.

Ship Subsidy Bill.

After a fight the house committee on merchant marine and fisheries has decided, by a vote of 8 to 7, to make a favorable report on a ship subsidy bill prepared by Representative Littauer of New York as a substitute for the Grosvenor bill, which has been under consideration for many weeks.

The members of the committee who supported the measure were Representatives Grosvenor, Miner, Littlefield, Fordney, Wachter, Humphrey, Watson and Littauer, all Republicans. The negative votes were cast by Bindall, Wilson and Hinshaw, Republicans, and Goulden, Maynard, Shirley and Patterson, Democrats.

Seven subsidized mail lines are provided for in the bill to be reported, with an annual subvention estimated at $3,750,000. Two of the lines are to be from the Atlantic coast to South America and one from the Gulf of Mexico to Colon. From the Pacific coast there are to be three lines to the orient and one line to the west coast of South America. Only two changes were made by the committee in the bill as originally drawn by Mr. Littauer. Instead of actually fixing San Francisco and Puget sound as the points of departure of the two lines to Japan, China and the Philippines, the committee amended Mr. Littauer's bill so that one of the lines is to start from a point north of Cape Mendocino and the other from a point south of Cape Mendocino.

DECREASE

Of Membership in Anthracite Field. Mitchell's Report.

Indianapolis, Jan. 16.—President Mitchell submitted his annual report to the convention of United Mine Workers. He laid especial emphasis in his report to the heavy decrease in membership in the anthracite field, and advocated putting a number of organizers in that field. He urged the re-establishment of the interstate conference, and recommended that the executive committee make efforts to re-establish relations with the operators in the central competitive field. He laid stress upon the apathy prevalent among the miners toward their duties to the organization.

Taylor Elected Senator.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 16.—The two houses of the Tennessee general assembly voted separately for a United States senator to succeed the late William B. Bate. The Democrats voted solidly for Robert L. The same proceedings will be taken next Tuesday and Wednesday, when Robert L. Taylor will be declared elected.

CLYDE FITCH EITHER MAD OR VERY RICH

(By George Henry Payne.)

New York, Jan. 16.—Mr. Fitch again holds the record. On Monday night the management of two theaters, the Criterion and the Astor, offered new plays by the author, thus making three plays by one author being seen in a city where competition for a hearing reaches almost the murder line. The young aspiring American dramatist must regard with dismay a talent that threatens to fill all the theaters, and fill them in such a way.

At 12 of New York's 50 odd theaters plays are being presented by American authors.

Whatever the fault of the Belasco plays, it would be dastardly to compare them to the felicitous Fitch plays.

"The Man of the Hour" is a better play than Mr. Fitch has ever written, and "The New York Idea" is a successful product in the very field in which Mr. Fitch has striven most and failed.

Altogether New York has seen four plays by Mr. Fitch this year, and with each one it has been emphasized that he was too willing to trade on his reputation to put plays upon the market that were unworthy even of him. Not only has he increased the amount of truth to each play, not only has he grown more episodic, but in "The Straight Road" he has grown coarser.

Moral fibre there never was and never is in Mr. Fitch's plays. When he is pretending to teach a moral lesson in his plays one is almost suffocated by the atmosphere of fake.

The harmless inanity of "The Truth" one may pardon—barring the humorous treatment of the unimpeachable person, who lives on women—but the out and out vulgarity of "The Straight Road" with its bed-room scene, calculated to "arouse discussion" (and attract dollars)—that surely ought to indicate that the dramatist is mad—or very rich.

Planning For 1917.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Plans for the national campaign of 1908 are being formulated by Republicans. A meeting of the executive committee of the National League of Republican Clubs is being held here to make preliminary arrangements for opening the campaign. The meeting was called to order by Edward C. McElgin, president of the league. The delegates were given a reception at the White House, the president extending to each a hearty greeting.
